Joint and Several liability.

Where more than one person has the same legal interest in the property (such as joint owner, joint tenants or joint residents) each person will be held liable to pay the whole council tax charge.

Married couples and people living together as partners are considered to be jointly and severally liable (whether or not they have an equal interest in the property). You are considered the partner of a person if you are husband and wife or living together as husband and wife, or if you are civil partners or living together as civil partners.

If you are jointly and severally liable for the council tax, you are personally responsible for paying the whole of the council tax bill and not just your share of it. If you pay what you consider to be your 'share' but the other person does not pay their 'share' you will still be liable to pay the unpaid amount. It is important therefore that you make arrangements to ensure that the whole bill is being paid to avoid recovery proceedings being instigated against each liable individual.

Trouble shooting

Q. The name shown on the bill is incorrect e.g. misspelt. What do I enter?

A. Enter the name as it appears on the bill. You can go online to correct it by selecting 'Council Tax Update' on the Council Tax home page.

Q. I have put in all my details but I am getting this message -

▲ The name details you have entered do not match the details for this account. Please check your bill and try again.

A. Is your full name shown on your bill? If there is no first name or only an initial e.g. Mr J Smith the Council Tax Online Service cannot verify your record. Please contact the Council Tax office to have your full name on our records.

Check the name entered is the same as shown on your bill. Ensure you have entered the full 8 digit account number.

If that does not work, go to your browser settings and clear your browsing history.
