Local Plan (Fourth Edition)

Pendle Local Plan Fourth Edition Publication Consultation

What's happening?

The Council has approved the Pendle Local Plan Fourth Edition for a six-week public consultation and submission for independent examination.

The consultation starts 9am Friday 25 October and closes at 5pm on Friday 6 December 2024.

This statement sets out details of the Local Plan and how you can submit your comments on it.

Where can I see the consultation documents?

View all the Pendle Local Plan Fourth Edition Consultation documents

Copies of the Local Plan, Sustainability Appraisal Non-Technical Summary, and Habitats Regulations Assessment are available to view, during their normal opening hours, at:

- > Barnoldswick Library, Fernlea Avenue, Barnoldswick, BB18 5DW

Policies Map

The Policies Map shows those areas of Pendle where different planning policies apply. A new policies map has been prepared to show how the policies of the Pendle Local Plan Fourth Edition will be implemented on adoption.

View the draft policies map.

How can I comment?

Comments are invited on the Pendle Local Plan Fourth Edition, supporting documents and evidence base. Comments must focus on the issues of legal compliance and soundness. Comments should be clear and succinct and outline what changes must be made to address concerns raised.

- Comments can be submitted using our online representation form.
- A printable representation form is also available.

Comments may also be submitted via email to planningpolicy@pendle.gov.uk or in writing by post to:

Planning, Building Control and Regulatory Services Pendle Borough Council

Town Hall

Market Street

Nelson BB9 7LG

Comments must be received by the Council before 5pm on Friday 6 December 2024 or they cannot be taken into account.

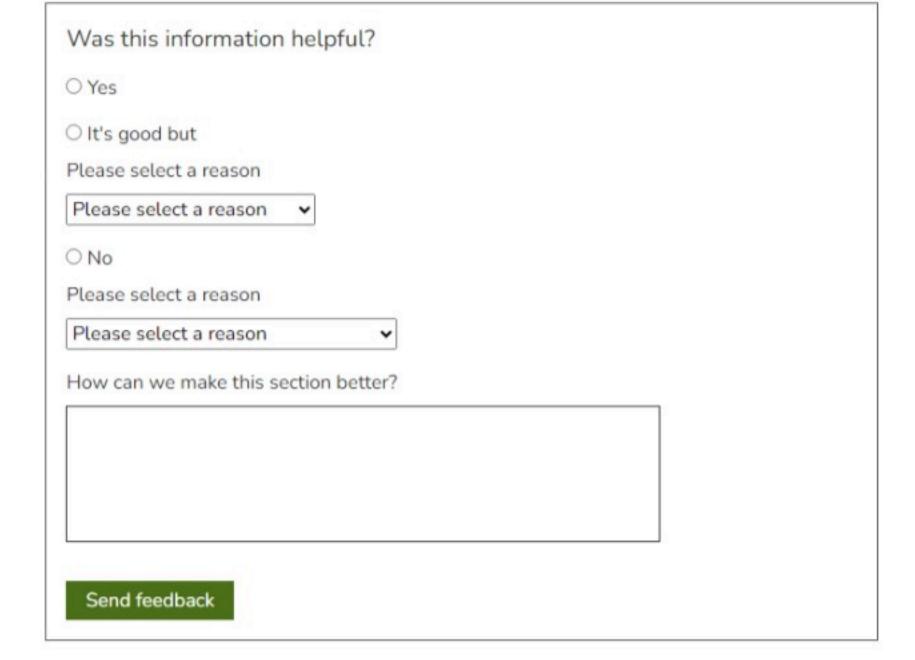

What happens next?

The Council will submit the Pendle Local Plan Fourth Edition, supporting documents and evidence, and all comments received in response to the consultation to the Secretary of State for independent examination.

The Secretary of State will appoint an Inspector to carry out an independent examination of the Plan. The Inspector will consider its legal compliance and soundness. The examination is usually conducted through the submission of written statements supplemented, where necessary, by public hearings. Anyone who has commented on the Local Plan Publication draft (Regulation 19) will be invited to take part in the Examination.

Details of the Examination, including information on how you can take part, will appear on the Council's website in due course. See GOV.uk Examination of Local Plans.

You can keep up to date about what is happening with the Local Plan by signing up to our consultation database emailing planningpolicy@pendle.gov.uk and by following the Council's social media channels.
