

Very pleased with the sensible decision to protect LENCHES from development (now or in then future) and in so doing continuing to provide a rich diverse area for wildlife to flourish and in keeping with a very important part of Colne's Heritage

Sent from my iPhone