Do you have any comments or ideas about how we can encourage more young people to join the Electoral Register and vote?
Advertise at Nelson and Colne College when recruiting poll clerks. The polling stations will then have a more youthful feel to them. Also, set up an "Electoral Registration Desk" during enrolment at N and C College. Promote it with freebies and staff it with trendy young people w
As above
have an easy to read youth leaflet
I believe voting should be mandatory.
I think you need to explain the electoral register and how they can influence direction through voting - a campaign starting in school use Twitter and Facebook to simplify the process.
NO
See above
Through social media?
Yes its called education.
Young people feel their vote will make no difference, which to an extent I believe is true as we elect MP's on a Borough / Constituency basis rather than whoever gets the most votes nationally gets 'X' number of MP's which I personally feel is wrong and I know a lot of other youn