13. Brierfield Health Centre

At the request of this Committee, feedback has been sought on the East Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (ELCCG) consultation about the future of the contract at the ELMS Federated Practice at Brierfield Health Centre.

The ELCCG advise that, after writing out to patients registered at the Practice, the feedback has been limited. However, all the feedback received, including that of this Committee, will be used to inform their decision.

They will be taking into account a number of factors when looking at how the contract will go forward. The views of the patients are of paramount importance and they remain committed to ensuring that patients receive a high standard of care.

Patients and stakeholders will be contacted once a decision has been made.
