In addition, a request for a representative of LCC to meet with Members on site had not been accepted. RESOLVED That the Lancashire County Council Cabinet Member for Highways and County Councillor Iqbal be asked to meet with members of this Committee on site at Taylor Street, Brierfield.	CCllrs Iddon and Iqbal have met with the Chairman on site. The issue will be discussed further with LCC officers in July.

(b) Humphrey Street, Brierfield – Traffic calming

Following a recent accident, Members felt that traffic calming measures were needed on Humphrey Street, Brierfield.

RESOLVED

That Lancashire County Council be asked to consider creating a speed hump on Humphrey Street, Brierfield.

(c) Chapel Street, Brierfield – Road markings

At the last meeting of this Committee Members were concerned that a request for the Give Way road markings to be refreshed at the Arthur Street and Stanley Street junctions with Chapel Street, Brierfield had not been discussed at the Traffic Liaison meeting.

Since that meeting, LCC had advised that it would inspect the area and consider the need for road marking recovery works.

RESOLVED

That LCC be asked to report back on the site visit and advise the Committee of action to be taken.

To be considered at the next Traffic Liaison meeting.

Awaiting response.
