

Proposed Diversion of Public Footpath 70 at Marsden Hall Road South - Photographs

Photograph 1 – Looking south at the section of footpath from the end of Marsden Hall South. The road will be constructed along the grass strip of land in the photograph.

Photograph 2 – Looking south showing the metal kissing gate at Point A (on the right hand side). The footpath will be diverted from this point.

Photograph 3 – looking south between points A and B along the existing footpath running along an access causeway.

Photograph 4 – taken from the causeway at the same point as photograph 3 looking west towards the site of the proposed development
