| | padlock; branding; and 20 weeks' supply of sanitiser, at a cost of £1,495 per unit be agreed. (2) That Members consult with local retailers to determine the best location for the hand sanitiser stations. (3) That £350 be allocated for safety publicity. (4) That the proposal to purchase and install lamppost banners not be agreed. | Noted. Further update elsewhere on the agenda. |
| 4. | Environmental Crime RESOLVED That clarification be sought on whether permission was required for the siting of large Charity Clothing Bins and whether they could be removed. | Permission is required from the landowner. A container on the public highway would need authorisation from Lancashire County Council or Pendle Council (if it is our highway). The bins could be removed from Council owned land if they were there without permission. Bins or waste from bins on private land could be dealt with via Section 215. |
